Y3/4 English Homework

Remember to read your reading book and write in your diary at least 5 times and practise your spellings before your spelling test on Friday.

This week we have been learning about non-chronological reports. We read an example report with lots of information about Pirates and found lots of features including title, subheadings, paragraphs and facts. We have also started to gather information and practise sentences for our own non-chronological report about the Stone Age.

For your homework this week, we would like you to pick a topic that you are interested in and write down some facts about it in full sentences. It can be anything, from food to football to spiderman to pets. Start with a title and then write some clear sentences, thinking about capital letters, full stops, spelling and handwriting.

If you want to challenge yourself, you could use subheadings to split your report into different sections. You could even add pictures or present your work in an imaginative way. If you need some more paper to work on, please just ask!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
