Suffixes

Add –er and –est to each word to create a new one. Think carefully about the spelling.

	–er	–est
rich
nice grumpy

Apostrophes

Add the apostrophes to these contractions to show where letters have been missed out.

shes

cant

theyll

hasnt

Word Classes

Write whether each underlined word is an adjective, adverb or verb.

The tired kids became really happy when Mrs Parrott got out the parachute.

Functions of Sentences

Match each sentence to the correct sentence type.

Go home now	exclamation
Why is it wet	command
What a day	question

Plurals

Write the plurals of these singular nouns.

puddle _____

welly _____

child _____

Spelling

Mr Whoops is juggling with a common exception word. Write the word on the line.

n l o y

_____

Suffixes

Add –er and –est to each word to create a new one. Think carefully about the spelling.

	–er	–est
rich	richer	richest
nice	nicer	nicest
grumpy	grumpier	grumpiest

Apostrophes

Add the apostrophes to these contractions to show where letters have been missed out.

she's

can't they'll

hasn't

Word Classes

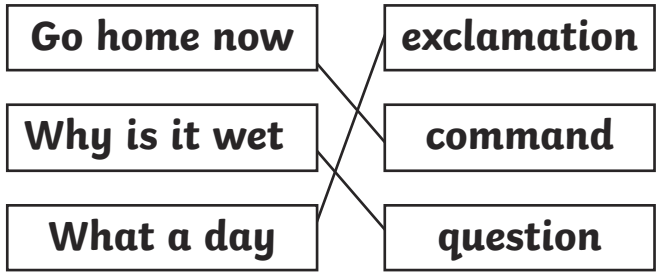

Write whether each underlined word is an adjective, adverb or verb.

The tired kids became really happy when Mrs Parrott got out the parachute.

adjective adverb verb

Functions of Sentences

Match each sentence to the correct sentence type.

Plurals

Write the plurals of these singular nouns.

puddle puddles

welly wellies

child children

Spelling

Mr Whoops is juggling with a common exception word. Write the word on the line.

only